

I've seen all this before but I don't if I'm sleeping this time again
have you ever seen his open eyes he's been lingering on,
back forth and on
how do you solve a puzzle like this one i don't know for sure come on come on
get back get back for good

This is why we need you now this is how it hurts,
get back, get back for good this time
never seen you
never seen you alive

I heard nothing at all
and I know I'm not dreaming never been a dreamer have you ever seen his eyes open wide
still clinging on how do you stop a lost cause, like this man

we don't know at all.
